Terry Sanford, President

July 29, 1982

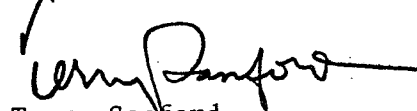

Dear Mr. Casey,

I applaud the effort you are making to continue and strengthen the mutually beneficial working relationship between the Central Intelligence Agency and the academic community, and I sincerely regret that I will be unable to participate in the October 13 meeting at the CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia. However, I am committed to another meeting in New York on that date.

I very much appreciate being invited to meet with you in what I know will be a substantive as well as most interesting session, and I am sorry that I cannot take part.

With best wishes always,

Sincerely,

Terry Sanford
